I open my new book. What will you tell for the next year. To bring forth a new chapter of wisdom, hopes, joys fears. I shall be burnt with myself; and therewith SUCCEED.

WITH JOEY, HAD A WONDERFUL DAY NOT WITHOUT WORRY THOUGH. SCHOOL the WORK I DIDN'T ACCOMPLISH; AND MY COLD IS LEAVING ME PHYSICAL IRKS AND PAINS + LACK OF SLEEP. I SOMETIMES WONDER WHAT HAPPENS TO ALL THOSE HOURS IN A DAY. I DO NOT SLEEP MUCH AND ACTUAL ACTIVITY TAKES UP ONLY A FEW MOMENTS COMPARED TO THOSE MANY THAT ARE WASTED. THOSE MOMENTS ARE THE ONE'S WHERE ONE GETS UPSET, IN ONESELF ALL THE REGRET, SHORTCOMINGS, ARE FOCUSED ON AND MAGNIFIED.

The weekend was awful. Continuous bickering, arguing nasty comments. I'm fed up I wish he really was too; that would make me feel less guilty. It so easy to have him; no new problems, challenges to meet.

I wish I understood myself better. could always be and act real, not for others for myself. I don't want to put on a show. When I'm secure in a group or know I'm ahead I show this feeling of serenity. Other times I hide an aquill. I'd kill I shout leave me I, look.

things are unbearable. They are both more than neurotics, unless all these phobias, symtoms etc. accompany the sickness. If I can go this summer I won't come back. I do hate them both. I would be happy to cut them out of my life forever. Forgive me but its true. I know I'm feeling sorry for myself again, but I can't be responsible for all my deeds. I was sarcastic about Edna's clothes in the rain but it is ridiculous. Her feet hat if it comes in contact with a rain drop a new one is purchased the new shoes, "I only have one pair of brown, I should have worn the oxfords (also brown, has a black for this type of occasion and that).

I felt this week that I wanted to learn art about as I discovered we don't really learn here, here we have just to work, that easy to point it's the qualities we have to live with — knowledge, learning — — with that is our minds we paint. just to paint and discuss the painting is not enough. Because it's the outside all else which must be in the painting.

I've seen last summer — I was hysterical complete breakdown because of a scene. I know I've to get back as I really face it out of myself pamper myself to take my mind off the particular disturbance.

encouraging. My potentials are high ~~if~~ even if my height is not, this is ridiculous, good, I'm glad; if it be unimportant; then what should hold me back. Experience as much as possible good and bad both are beneficial. I'm sure I have never let myself enjoy dancing as I was ashamed of my height and at all times I found some different physical fault. Were these a cover for some other form of insecurity or are they in themselves the reasons. I'm inclined to believe the former.

The more I see of life, day to day experiences, the more dissatisfied I am with conditions and with myself. I know so little how can I really paint or just paint. what am I painting? what do I have to say, that's worthwhile, and if I spend all my time saying and feeling when will I learn more which in turn will be told. It's like writing memoirs, without ~~a life~~ previous.

Went to Florence's recital. Old Liberon gang. not many but enough to bring back memories. Noise travels fast among all circles in amongst a particular group news is exaggerated towards the favor of that group and torn and degraded of a delicate trust if its among or about a different type of people. I am I can't find myself or associate with one I travel or connect where I feel apart of with one group I'm happy to see another and able to say "I know them", I then feel guilty. a cheap association, superficial. People are really all the same. I feel happy even riding now alone on the train 12:00 A.M. midnight. about C.U. Sol graduated and went to Yale. Another good aspect to look forward to as far as the summer. Jack was correct saying I don't really know the people who will be at the camp; and having passed the preliminary stages of meeting then the next step the more difficult and helpful and nicer part of friendship will most be gained.

I did learn something — to believe in others a little more, my self too. This is easy to say, but do I really, not to judge so harshly await and find out about the other person, as soon as I am given a little assurance I take a grab a handful and have to continue to prove myself. Stay calm, speak and assert yourself but don't hide at one time and explode like a bomb the next.

I worked hard i graphics, was tired did a bad plate. Called Jack, talked, what bore, prepared something for us to eat & went to movies, awful, fell asleep. I'm seeing Jack to often. And its getting too involved. The pattern has now repeated itself so often I have almost no hope or confidence in myself to know whether what I'm doing makes any sense & I'm unhappy as always. The summer is and awful problem. I jump from problem to prob. I don't let myself alone. If one doesn't exists find something wrong with myself or something I said did or didn't do. I don't trust my own judgement. I'm afraid I mess up my life so bad till now I want to make up for it so I get more confused. jumpy again as far as summer is concerned I want the best can for me that I can be happy, work become adjusted to the environment. Yet to know it's very unimportant really where it's me but if I feel needed, that I belong, well that's problem I need to adjust.

I'm getting sicker. - less confidence - my opinions and ideas conflict, what I want to do most I never do or put off and they have to be best. I want love and understanding I don't give, and I push it off so not real, I have less trust in people, more jealous, yet I want better understanding among people, live creative and progressive thought in how they could live together.

Thurs. Eve. I'm behaving badly. The simpler it said maybe the more emphatic the meaning. If there were anyone here who understood some fobyerlogey they would sure see are obvious case. I have every symptom and I'm not joking I'm thoroughly disgusted with myself. If it is ever in some ways worse than last year. I'm uncomfortable at the table, my problems with eating, develop thoroughly here, over the long periods of spending time around food I have ample time. 2. Young people — I'm so jealous & envious than myself, teenagers I want them to know I'm older that keeps me away or at any rate they look at me differently different conversation I don't know to be staid if I'm different Older - I can be safe and don't have to feel stupid say I have time to catch up. Some - afraid - compare and always feel boorish. There is absolutely nothing I feel stable adequate about.

I wore my coat indoors - excuse of cold - plausible as it was freezing a few elderly women kept them on. ashamed of myself.

I was sarcastic, cynical embittered towards all the people, hotel, religion attitudes I am not / even sure of and all this and I was the unhappy fool for it.

I watched a wonderful mother enjoying her 14½ yr old daughter flirting very mildly with a young 17 yr old boy. The occasional smile and she nodded to me, the pretty very wide skirt of a pink silk stylish dress, her proud graceful yet shyful hesitance of being obvious, or watched. The more self conscious the more inhibited. I measured my height etc, constantly, on the defensive, shy I wouldn't join the leaders dancing, was scared but did not participate, couldn't speak to the kids as I felt they thought I was there age. completely irrational couldn't sleep, couldn't concentrate on work when I went by myself.

The other part of me had the opportunity to care part FRI. nite. I wore something conf. flats, was in a happy mood, made one friend walked back up to the oval. Sat in a group, song danced & was in the light was made wanted, participate had fun. The closed circle of the Israelis liked and questioned me, art which they said they thought, music or dance also that I was from Israel. Now I was one of them attention belonging, compliments — different, they looked up to me made me or pedastal, was liked by a no. of boys — nice first wholesome pretty, smart girl — the adults thought so —

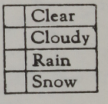

The crush did come, again thought a dream of future, got rid of Fred glad, was afraid to go to other places was allowed, of my looks, clothes etc. same as here till I was accepted for I glowed in my difference, so I'm defeating all what I want to be, honest sincere indifferent of looks, clothes etc.

Such a day I have an endless amount of work which must be done in the next week or two. If organized it could be done. I just mounted my 3 pieces for league. What my choice is must not be somewhat class, Tastes vary according to every change mood etc. A lot of pleasant day I must admit. This is the first time I've ever done anything like this. What fun! Life could be quite nice and must admit at least I know I felt that yesterday and can recall the memories soon. All will be quite different when I leave this house for [illegible]. I thought of Joey as well and how even to God he too does allright and will keep up with his studies. Decisions are coming a little easier. My reasons I will make are somewhat less important I am looking for something else to fill in something which always remains the same what can be my most faithful friend for it is part of me to that builds the abroad I'm an honest truth seeking friend I must seek myself to be what I think right

Tomorrow will prove more eventful not that today was not different. Learn to avoid this not to myself first Scotty was a nice support all day I don't know if what I did turned out for the worse, the new issue Dirt and her accepting a luncheon date with Kaminsky. I rather now write about it but wait this reminder to tell you and how I feel about it not do not. I asked Ellen would she have accepted, her reply no. I'm pinning don't want to meet her tomorrow. I dislike and will tell her.

I still think he likes me and is getting to me though me. I never felt anything so powerfully when it looks the contrary I am or not almost glad as if this was my first meeting and my first will be the second. And now if it's not so it just one big mistake I'm seeing much anymore except the pain I've been in' her eyes that I've gained on me, and disappointed that my dream turned out a shmuck, (if he could like her), I'm sorry sorry also, I missed speaking to mayer, did shrink to look Daddy was crazy, cracking, drinking smiling (sneaking) talking to himself, restless moving waving as Eve returned I stood there shaking, Horrible!!

My immediate unanswered problems finishing first my lettering and arch, planning for summer and before working out the feud with D. and my befuddled relation to should be given some thought, and finally for next year a place to live and a schedule of some sort for academic studies. ——

Although I did work the last two evenings for almost the first time this year I am doubting my creative abilities, either that being tied up by some emotional inability to let go, being afraid I'll be making a fool of myself as concerning public relations and in my art work existing time or some such thing. I see this week now in 3 dim. work and. a result. I will try still. first lettering all weekend Wed. Will write thru nite Wed. — finished.

mummy's BIRTHDAY

FRIDAY, May 13

LAST DAY of SCHOOL

It is the 27th now, and I'm going to look back a week or so and also ahead. I am in the midst of quite a turmoil within myself fearing so dreadfully the next few days unnecessarily. My feeling of inadequacy are dominant that everything is completely out of focus and scale. I am almost minus faculties. Now wanting to hear myself again going over these ideas of destruction I will attempt to find out why the hysterics when I have so little responsibility to not be able to go away from home without a protector and let myself be among a group ~~not~~ standing up as individual. Afraid of being hurt with words, someone saying up thing something negative about me. Also that I won't be able to talk freely, in a friendly happy manner, won't be one of the group. It has happened at last few feeling this reflection which if it was only in my mind it

I am writing this APRIL 1st. - plan this weekend - trip somewhere or something + don't stay at home.

I have been worse than a failure to myself, I have also hurt at least one other. I have realized my problem is even worse than I thought, knowingly I must have really avoided group interpost situations as I can't begin to relax and have fun. I was apart and unhappy not spiritually, continuously with a few moments at different times getting along.

The boy was very perceptive & likeable to point the weariness and changes reeling in them and we talked it over first, argumentatively then subsiding to a beginning of an interesting analytical talk.

I have physical weariness occasional headaches from Friday nite thru Sat night Sun. noon being true, I complained of real headaches and probably it's due mostly to sunless, staying indoors all day, sleeping - eating the others ate watched my bedroom shade, they all brought me lunch, told me how the boy felt worried stayed with me the rest. I was called little Eve, had baby buds was among the shorties, and we went overmountain the last. I went swimming (my head is partially due to that.) alone when it was fairly late not very cold but alone when today all went Sunny etc.

Today I want to surmise my summer vacation:

Counselors are sitting here now on beds in one of their bunks, writing records. I will write mine. Left out feeling is obvious. A problem arose; a missing O. D, Yes you you Q. How many O D did you have, Last note ? Took so and so's place, who was the finger pointed to, yours truly. They are short, those remaining at this late hour had it recently and frequently. Mine was Mon, and again Tues. I dread the chore, am lonely and frightened — I feel then rejected - (I guess as I doubt this just fear of darkness its seems superficial not real.) I feel nebulous, losing my identity.

I dislike the administration, yet when they even once kindly acknowledge my existence I am thrilled and happy.

Having no conference as do the others, I am not ever talked to about comporting myself by ends
